

Protect Our Freedom to Read
7th Grade Public Service Announcement Project
Due Thursday, October 8th

You are going to create a project that will serve as a public service announcement. Your project's purpose is to encourage others to protect our freedom to read.

In doing so, you will emphasize the importance of protecting our right to Freedom of Speech, as guaranteed by the First Amendment.

You will consider this in the context of rebellion.

You will need to select a format for you project. It must be something that can be visually displayed, such as:

A poem	A collage	A Play or Film Script
A poster	An editorial	Other???
Song lyrics	A story

You will need to include the exact wording of the First Amendment.

You will need to include an historical example that makes clear the need to protect this right.

You will be graded for including the above components, as well as for being creative and unique with your project.

We will be doing First Amendment activities during class for the next bunch of days. This means that while you will have SOME time in class to complete this, you will need to work at home.

Please consider the links on my webpage as helpful for you in this endeavor.

Open your minds. Be creative. This is an opportunity for you to synthesize important ideas in a fun, creative way!
